During this period of rapid change and uncertainty, we're here to help you serve your customers while also keeping yourself, your family and community healthy and safe. The necessary restrictions in response to the COVID-19 pandemic make customary, in-person, interactions like Open Houses and Home Tours difficult if not impossible (or even illegal in some markets). Adapting to these restrictions while continuing to make the market work, many MLSs are cancelling in-person open houses and exploring all possibilities to hold "virtual" open houses online. To facilitate, we've added the ability for you to schedule virtual open houses and tours of homes in Flexmls Web (as allowed by your MLS).
